A note from the Drama Department

It's hard to believe that it's come around to that time again! PCS are thrilled to be back this year with our annual school production.

Being a newcomer to the department, I had to think really hard about what show would suit such a new cast (or at least new to me!) I settled on the idea of Matilda as a celebration of being different, being true to yourself and the idea of being just a little bit magical.

The cast have risen to this huge challenge, and we are thrilled to bring this magic to life for you this evening and we are all incredibly proud of what they have achieved.

Huge thanks go as ever, to the incredible staff who have helped this production come to fruition, particularly to the drama "squad" and some incredible trainees, who have been amazing throughout the process as I've barked orders at them from behind a table, or vented at them from behind a laptop, as well as to the local businesses who have sponsored us so that we can go ahead, please do take the time to look at their adverts and support them if you can.

This year, we say goodbye to some fabulous year 11s, some of whom have been involved in productions since year 7; and are part of the very fabric of the drama department. Our leavers this year are:

Libby Pook, Ava Dawson, Erin Falconer, Jess Meadway-Ferreira, Cherry Brown, Billy McLean, Rowan Breach & Isabelle Paine.

Thank you for supporting our amazing students, please enjoy the show.
